VOIP INTERCOM MODULE

VOIP INTERCOM
IN 140X130 MODULE

The intercom consists of a high-quality speaker, microphone, and an intuitive control module. This system enables clear two-way communication between users within a building or on a secured site. By adding a phone number, the intercom can also reach external contacts, greatly expanding its usability.

Communication is established via a reliable wired connection, ensuring stable operation without relying on wireless networks. The intercom can also be directly connected to door control systems or similar access solutions, allowing for efficient and secure access management.

The intercom is designed on a 140x130 mm front panel, making it a perfect fit for Alphatronics' kiosks.
